WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT?

We take your case personally.

As our client, you are an individual – not a faceless number on a file folder. We listen to your needs and pursue your case to fit your specific circumstances.

Mr. Walkenhorst and Mr. Machek handle each case personally. They are easy to talk with and are committed to the success of every case.

We know Social Security disability law.

We know how to successfully navigate the complicated, confusing and ever changing Social Security bureaucracy. Unlike most attorneys, we limit our law practice to helping individuals qualify for disability benefits. It's all we do. Let us put our knowledge and experience to work for you or someone you know.

We'll help with your application.

The best time to have an attorney become involved with a disability claim is before the application is filed. If you contact us before you apply, one of our attorneys will perform a free review of your disability application.

OUR CLIENTS TURN TO US FOR MANY REASONS

It's all we do.

Our knowledge and experience in disability law is unsurpassed.

We win cases.

We have won disability benefits for the vast majority of the thousands of clients we have represented.

We care about our clients.

Mr. Walkenhorst, Mr. Machek and their dedicated staff give every case personal attention. It makes a difference.

We keep up to date with the latest changes in the law.

We are members of the National Organization of Social Security Claimants' Representatives, and the Social Security Committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association.

Our fees are affordable!

Attorney fees for Social Security or SSI disability cases are regulated by the Social Security Administration. A clearly written fee agreement is provided every client. There is no fee unless you are awarded benefits and all fees must be approved by Social Security. Normally the fee is 25% of your retroactive benefits, capped at an officially set limit. Future benefits are yours fully.
